

Drip sensor

This creation system provides an instillation sensor, which is mainly used when the patient is hanging instillation.

A detector is installed on the bottle, and the detector is electrically connected to a sounding device; When it is about to be used up, the detector detects the lower liquid level in the auxiliary drip bottle and immediately informs the sounding device. The buzzer emits a warning sound to inform the medical staff to replace the drip bottle in time.

